

Proposal Number	Sponsor	Actual Language	Passed	Failed	Postponed
101	Miriam Simon	The State of California shall have a legislative branch consisting of a bicameral legislature.	x
102	Tomas Tuszynski	The State of California shall be run by a council of nine popularly-elected members of a Council of Governance. This Council shall act as the governing body of the State in all matters. Each member of the Council shall be re-elected every 6 years for a maximum of 3 terms. The elections shall take place in rotations, with 3 being elected every 2 years.		x
103	Sana Shah	The State of California shall have a Committee which oversees and evaluates the environmental impacts of large scale projects involving the jurisdiction of California.	x
104	Victoria Bracco	The government shall establish a Ministry of Health to help regulate the healthcare system.	x
105	Ezhan Brisley	The State of California establishes an executive branch consisting of a 2 person consulate in which there would be one consular ruling over civil matters, such as education, civil rights and liberties and labor relations, and one ruling over matters of land use/conservation, taxation and government spending, and business and infrastructure.		x
106	Sahil Dhandi	The Government of California will be composed of a bicameral Parliamentary legislature, a Prime Minister acting as the executive head, and a court system.	x
107	Jordan Williams	The State of California shall establish public libraries and ensure the right to easy access for reading and electronic materials.	x
108	Cesar Meza	The State of California shall establish a "State Support Corps" that serves as the prison system to house and rehabilitate criminals convicted by the standing California judicial system. The purpose of the Corps is to provide services to the State of California. All imprisonment sentences are to be served in the Corps.		x
109	Marcus Luebke	There shall be a High Court of California to settle cases from lower levels of the judicial system and declare Californian law unconstitutional. The High Court of California shall consist of 9 judges, who the executive branch shall appoint from the lower levels of the judicial system.	x
110	Parler Wespiser	The State shall establish a state-wide standing military force ("Militia"), led by the executive whose size and funding is to be determined by the State.		x
111	Grant Hoffman	California shall establish and regulate a series of mental health facilities and clinics.	x
112	Sahib Kapur	A citizen of California shall be defined as a person who was born within the state's boundaries or those who are approved to establish residency within California.	x
113	Collin Nascimento	One house will contain members of political parties proportional to the vote of the previous election. Parties themselves will choose the members. Size will be 200 members. Elections will take place along with other state legislature elections.		x
114	Grace Laurie	Officials in a state legislature cannot serve for more than 4 years.		x
115	Ben Myers	To amend the Constitution of the State of California, an amendment must be proposed and passed through each chamber of the legislature with a two-thirds majority. The amendment must then be placed on a statewide ballot and passed through the people with a two-thirds majority.	x
116	Simon Johnson	In order to be eligible for citizenship of California, a person must be a citizen of the United States of America (so long as California is a member of the States) and must revoke their citizenship in any other state within the United States.	x
117	Sandalina Sattar	The State of California must establish a committee to assist and benefit California's homeless population.	x
118	Jesse Newman	A court system that justly determines if people committed crimes, and their punishments will exist, including a trial court to decide facts, an appellate court to challenge rulings, and a Supreme Court to have the power to override lower court rulings.	x
119	Simon Johnson	District lines shall be drawn for state representation, using a shortest-line method. Districts shall be made as close as possible to 100,000 people in size. Small adjustments to district lines may be made by the High Court in order to prevent accidental gerrymandering. Under a shortest-line method, the State of California would be divided into two districts of equal population using the shortest line possible. Then, those districts would each be divided in the same manner. This process would continue until all of the districts are as close to the specified population size as possible. Districts will be redrawn every 10 years in coordination with the United States census.		x
120	Connor Heffernan	One house in the California State Legislature shall be the House of the Bear, whose primary purpose shall be to defend the rights and interests of each locality in the State of California. It shall consist of one representative from each district, which shall be elected every two years at the same time.		x
121	Simon Johnson	One house in the California State Legislature shall be the House of the Eagle, intended to represent all ideological groups in the State of California. This house shall have 200 members. The election process shall be conducted as follows, in the following order: (1) Each party (which shall refer to a political party or otherwise incorporated ideological group) shall in a democratic process with input from the citizen members of the party, form an ordered list of candidates for the House of the Eagle. (2) Citizens shall vote in a statewide election for the party they would like represented in this House (3) Seats in this House shall be distributed based on the proportion of votes each party receives. Members to occupy a party's allotted seats shall be chosen from the aforementioned list, with priority given to the candidates placed higher up on the party's list.		x
122	Milliecent Sampson	Seats in the California Congress must be equitably distributed by district between the eligible voters of California. To promote equity, the California Congress must allocate a minimum of 5% of all congressional seats to under-represented Californians. The status of underrepresentation shall be determined by a standing committee comprised of ineligible voters and other under-represented groups as determined by the most recent census.		x
123	Daniel Cockrill	The State of California shall have both local and statewide police forces to enforce local and state laws. The police force will have the right to detain people suspected of breaking laws with evidence.	x
124	Ezhan Brisley	California shall establish the California Postal Service. This agency would replace the United States Postal Service and be a completely separate entity. The service would only be available in California and would be the only source of government delivery system provided in California, eliminating the United States Postal Service. The State of California would also withdraw from the Union. The California Postal Service would deliver by air, sea, and land.		x
125	Jaewon Yang	State legislative districts shall be redrawn every 10 years based on United States census data. A computer algorithm will draw the districts initially, utilizing a binomial division based on population, divided until there are 64 districts. The resulting districts will be subject to review by an independent, non-partisan commission that will ensure that districts provide equitable representation for all demographics.	x
126	Connor Heffernan	All appointments by the executive to positions of authority shall be confirmed by the legislature.	x
127	Noah August	One legislative house shall be the House of the Bear, meant to represent and defend the rights and interests of the localities of California. It shall be composed of one representative from each district. It shall be elected every 4 years at the same time.	x
128	Rosella Cummin	California citizens are guaranteed the right to free public Kindergarten through twelfth grade education and the State of California shall establish a State Board of Education.	x
129	Lillian Shallow	A) The legislative body shall, with the consent of both houses, make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution. B) Bills to be put into law may originate in either house. C) The Prime Minister may veto laws passed by the legislature. The legislature may override a veto with a two-thirds majority vote.	x
130	Lillian Shallow	The Prime Minister shall see that the law is faithfully executed. Along with the Prime Minister, a Lieutenant Prime Minister is to be elected to assist the Prime Minister. A) The Prime Minister presides over one of the legislative houses. B) The Lieutenant Prime Minister presides over the other legislative house. C) The Prime Minister is granted the power to appoint a cabinet to serve with them during their term. D) The Prime Minister and Lieutenant Prime Minister shall be elected by the citizens of California every four years along with the legislature.		x
131	Miriam Simon	The House of the Redwood shall be created as a legislative house so that there may be representation for each district in a manner more removed from the distracting process of frequent re-election. It shall have one representative from each district. The term of a member shall be six years, with about one-third of the members elected every two years.	x
201	Armand Manoukian	Among all financial advisors/banks in the State of California, a fiduciary relationship must be established and not breached.	x
202	Max Flesishman	Every California resident has the right to affordable, local public transportation.	x
203	Olivia Sullivan	California residents have the right to see the tax returns of those running for office within the California state government.	x
204	Tessa Azani	All items necessary to only one gender shall not be taxed.	x
205	Grant Hoffman	The State of California shall provide public, free access to 2 year community college to people with residency in the state.	x
206	Charlotte Kendall	Public schools cannot teach curriculum with a religious bias.	x
207	Jordan Rigor	The California Government must prioritize government spending on the improvement or reconstruction of failing, hazardous, or outdated infrastructure over the institution of technological advancements in infrastructure and public transportation.		x
208	Tyler Chase/Sonja Scott	All residents of California shall have access to personal hygiene equipment. Additionally, all residents shall have the right to proper nourishment.	x
209	Charlie Lea	Once a citizen reaches voting age, he/she shall not have his/her right to vote revoked, unless citizenship is revoked.	x
210	Hannah Crawford	Human dignity shall be inviolable to respect and protecting it shall be the duty of all state authority. The California Constitution shall define "human dignity" as the coherent value and worth as human beings. All humans will be treated with respect and high regard for personal safety, regardless of differentiating circumstances or appearance.		x
211	Brendan Caver	California government will require foreign language education in public schools from Kindergarten to twelfth grade. If D (English Language Development) students can choose to opt out, as they may already be taking multiple English classes.	x
212	Becca Ross	The California Government is not allowed to sentence anyone to death.	x
213	David Impastato	The Government of the State of California will defend the right of any business, no matter the size, to trade in an atmosphere free from unfair competition and domination by monopolies.		x
214	Thomas Kristensen	Public high schools should guarantee adequate college counseling and application assistance.	x
215	Victoria Bracco	Infrastructure must be regularly inspected for usability, safety, and cost efficiency by the Government.	x
216	Charlie Lea	All Californians have the right to use restrooms in public spaces.	x

Proposal Number	Sponsor	Actual Language	Passed	Failed	Postponed
217	Charlie Lea	Native American tribes have the right to representation in state legislature.	x
218	Yoryana Quiñonez	New curriculums shall be introduced at the lowest grade of education. The government state funded public institutions shall prioritize California residents when considering college admissions.		x
219	Alexa Taru	The California state government shall be able to monitor citizens' internet usage for the purpose of criminal investigations.		x
220	Garrison Pennington	Mandated start time for public schools shall be no earlier than 8:30am.		x
221	Kieran Naidu	Every citizen, regardless of beliefs, must have vaccinations deemed necessary by the Center for Disease Control, unless contraindicated.	x
222	Davis Carpenter	All public schools are required to have a medical professional on campus during school hours.	x
223	Riley Rojas	Every person who testifies before a California court must testify behind a screen that conceals their race unless race or physical markings are vital to the case.		x
224	Lauren Eastwood	All students, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity, have the right to comprehensive and inclusive sex education in public high schools.	x
225	Ryan Thoms	The California government has the right to impose laws upon industry to maintain natural resources.	x
226	Laura Gomez	All California residents over the age of 18 have complete legal control over their own bodies. The government shall not make any laws regulating citizens' decisions concerning their own physical body.		x
227	Spencer Corbett	All animals in the California agriculture industry must be raised free range and hormone free.		x
228	Erik Barton	The State of California cannot incarcerate minors and must instead focus on rehabilitation and reintegration.	x
229	Clay Watson	Every child shall be guaranteed a free primary and secondary public education in the proximity in which they live.		x
230	Nathan Zager	Everybody, regardless of legal status, has the right to free healthcare if under the poverty line.		x
232	Porsche Noble	Free tools for reproductive rights are guaranteed, including free access to pap smears, abortions, breast cancer screenings, and birth control, for documented and undocumented people.	x
233	Emma Maass/Molly Weinstein	The California Government shall ensure that the mental and physical health of its citizens will be given equal attention in the medical system.	x
234	Marina Carlstroem	Every Californian has the right, starting at first grade through twelfth grade, to learn about our complex government and political system. It will be implemented into the curriculum and there will be factual textbooks that get progressively more in-depth, including topics such as economics, human rights, and environmental politics.		x
235	Bridget Tick	All felonies the right to have their non-violent crimes be erased from all resources accessible by the public.		x
236	Nicolas Weinstock	California shall budget all physical resources (water, energy, land, etc.) effectively and efficiently.		x
238	Noah August	All California residents, citizens and non-citizens, shall be guaranteed a living wage.		x
239	Sahil Dhandi	All candidates seeking political office must collect a certain amount of supporters, based on meritability, in order to receive state campaign funds financed by Californian tax payer dollars.		x
240	Gabriel Feizbakhhah	Our state shall not print currency, but rely on bartering for all exchanges of goods and services.		x
241	Jake Stolmack	In order to be declared a candidate for Prime Minister of California, one must have 5 years of elected or appointed work experience in government within the State.		x
242	Mia Jeffery	All high schools in the State of California must provide art classes for all of their students. The classes provided must include both the visual and performing arts.	x
243	Anna Jensen	The State of California shall allow minors of sixteen or seventeen years of age who pay income tax to vote in local elections, and income tax-paying minors of seventeen years of age to vote in local and state elections.		x
244	Christopher Wyatt	California's education requirements for Kindergarten through twelfth grade shall involve a reduction in school work outside the classroom, more classes that teach important social skills, fewer standardized tests, and more free time during school.		x
245	Will Campbell	California citizens shall have the right to physician-assisted suicide in the case of terminal illness if said citizen is deemed mentally capable of making medical decisions.	x
246	Emma Burrows/Shirin Assadian	In times of drought, California must reduce the farming of water-intensive nuts.	x
247	Cooper Lyden	All energy used for domestic and industrial purposes shall be from a renewable source.		x
248	Daniel Cockrill	The government shall protect the right of any applicant not to be discriminated against on the basis of gender identity, race, religion, or genetic information on any application.	x
251	Maya Heron	All people living under the poverty line shall be able to receive a pass exempting them from any costs of using public transportation, including but not limited to transit buses.	x
252	Sherry Chiang	The right of adults to have consensual sex, including in exchange for monetary compensation, shall not be infringed upon.	x
254	Loren Jacobs	Every citizen has the right to a decent home.	x
255	Jensel Gonzales	The California State Bird shall be the California-indigenous and highly recognizable blue-footed booby.	x
309	Bridget Benevides	Every California-born United States citizen is granted an Haas avocado tree to be planted on the day of their birth.	x
260	Mason Lindh	Every employed resident of California is guaranteed a paid holiday on their date of birth.		x
263	Alexander Bondarenko	Allocation of campaign finances will be dealt with solely by the government and distributed equally to all candidates with no outside interference in terms of private donations.	x
265	Scout Turkel	In the State of California, all automatic firearms shall not be permitted for sale, possession, or use. The California Department of Justice cannot authorize exceptions for citizens.	x
266	Kyle Lane	The State Animal shall be the grizzly bear.		x
268a	Noah August	The State of California's official state animal is hereby declared the almighty bee.	x
268b	Nitin Daswani	No person running for California State government shall run under any political party.		x
269	Mouna Baha	Everyone has the right to access all California beaches.		x
271	Lily Walker	All farming must be conducted with the most efficient form of irrigation.	x
273	Emily Mauromates	The State government shall not endorse or make any display of religious affiliation.	x
275	Julia David	No candidate or incumbent of elected or appointed office may mention their religious affiliation with any public media specifically to: 1. Gain the votes/ support of those of the same faith, 2. Justify their political opinions, 3. Use their religion as a basis for their platform/ political opinions.		x
277	Olivia Campbell	All public colleges in the State of California must allow their students to have access to free textbooks.	x
278	Kobon Steele	The State of California will protect the right of individuals to use the restroom of the gender that they identify with.	x
280	Emerson	All California city and county flags must follow these 5 basic principles of flag design. The flag should: 1. Be simple enough for a child to draw it from memory, 2. Use meaningful symbolism, 3. Use no more than 3 basic colors, 4. Not have any lettering or seals of any kind, 5. Be distinctive.	x
282	Andrew Mishkin	A majority of California crops must be used for human/edible animal consumption rather than the production of fuel for automobiles and machinery (non-living consumers).		x
283	Nima Afshar	Police departments whose racial demographics closely mirror that of the city in which they enforce will receive annual funding bonuses. The annual funding bonus will be determined based on the average annual income of the city's residents.		x
284	Oliver Cazden	Companies who utilize environmentally sustainable production methods are to be subsidized by the government.	x
288	Spencer Ganas	Present and formerly incarcerated individuals are entitled to suffrage. All rights guaranteed by this constitution shall be granted only to individual citizens of California. They shall not extend to any personal assets or corporate entities.	x
296	Rebecca Kremen	The State of California must ensure that employers do not ask about or seek out a potential employee's prior salary.	x
299	Declan Chin	Widely accepted scientific discoveries must be acknowledged and acted upon accordingly by the government.	x
300	Addison Landsburg	All educational programs must guarantee no rise in tuition while a student obtains their degree or certification.	x
302	Ella Quinn	Adults in California have the right to legally marry another consenting adult.	x
303	Taylor Gehris	The State of California shall establish a statewide holiday aligning with the federal Election Day, as well as state election days.	x
304	Keely Paris	Every citizen, age 16 and up, has the right to obtain a driver's license. The length of election campaigns shall be limited to a maximum of six months.		x
306	Emily Fern	Standardized testing shall not be taken into account during the public college application process in the State of California.	x
307	Joseph Saghafi	The State of California must allocate resources to scientific programs, including but not limited to space exploration and environmental sustainability projects.	x
308	Olivia Goldrich	Edible psilocybin mushrooms shall be legal for every citizen over the age of 18 in the safety of a private estate with a consumer license.	x
310	Andrey Kim	Any document requesting an individual to specify their racial or gender identity must provide a write-in option.		x
311	Robert Murphy	If federal funding is considered insufficient for any reason, the State of California has the responsibility to financially support sanctuary cities (cities that will not provide to the federal government information about the legal status of their residents) in California. California shall not have any sanctuary cities.	x
312	Wyatt Meyer	The California bicameral legislature can make no law regarding the establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof, or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people to peacefully assemble, or to petition the government for a redress of grievances.		x
314	Harper Lambert	The State of California shall hold a Constitutional Convention every 20 years in order to amend and change the Constitution (if need be).		x
316a	Lilly Wollman	The State of California requires that all schools shall be gun-free zones, with the exception of law enforcement officers.	x
316b	Nick De La Rosa
318	Charlie Primuth
325	Zara Saif
328	Addison Stott

